Well, The Boys Are Here, What Shall We Do With Them?

No need to ask Maryville that question for her reception of the members of the Fourth Regiment band was all that could be desired. The stores decorated "profusely," as they say in the society columns, and an enormous crowd was on hand to meet the boys as the Burlington train rolled into the station.

About 150 automobiles went down to the station. Seven of them Schumachers, W. C. Pearson's, J. H. Sewells's, Dr. Jesse Miller's, Roy Curfman's Will Phares' and T. L. Wilderman's, were used to convey the boys from the station, and they were taken to the hotel Linville and Bainum where they had dinner.

This afternoon's program begins at 4 o'clock when the school children will march. The boys will play the first time then. The evening program is all arranged and prospects for a splendid time gathering were never so bright.

The small admission fee, thirty-five cents will be charged for the evening's entertainment, and never did thirty-five cents promise so much amusement in Maryville. Pictures first—a five reel photoplay, 'Davy Crockett,' worth fifteen cents any day in the week. Then will follow a dollar concert by the boys just home from the border, where they have been practicing ten hours a week for the last seven months on brand new instruments. Then speeches that can't be valued in money unless you know the speakers, W. A. Blagg, T. A. Cummins and the Rev. S. A. Coile. And after the speeches more pictures. You will get more than full value for every penny expended, and the money goes to the boys. The dance at the Elks Club will end the festivities.

The program to be given by the Fourth Regiment band follows:

March—"Pilot".....G. D. Sherman
Overture—"William Tell".....Rossini
One-Step—"Hello Hawaii, How Are You".....Swartz
Waltz—"Blue Danube".....Strauss
Clarinet Solo—"How Can I Leave Thee".....Reinhold Ritter
Grand Selection—"Songs of Scotland".....J. B. Lampe

Home's The Best Place After All, Says Bandmaster Maulding

Bandmaster T. B. Maulding of the Fourth Regiment band is proud of the record made by his boys on the border. He says that the band had the reputation throughout all the camps of being the best among those of the National Guard.

"Soon after we arrived," said Bandmaster Maulding today, "The band was recruited to its full strength—twenty-eight members—and the daily rehearsals soon brought the playing of the boys up to a degree of excellence that would have been difficult of attainment ordinarily. We practiced every day except Saturdays and Sundays, and took part in the regimental work besides. Then we gave a concert every evening, and played at any of the social functions given by the officers.

"The experience was not always pleasant but was nevertheless valuable. I do not believe that there is a man returning to Maryville today who does not think more of his home and who has not a different outlook on life. The months of discipline have made the boys appreciate work and realize the value of work, well and properly done.

"I did not like the South or the southern people. Their ways were strange, and I couldn't get used to them. Otherwise, I didn't mind the life down there,—but no matter how comfortably one is fixed away in another town, home is the best place, after all."

H. H. Roush, of the Siam neighborhood, has his fighting clothes on, even if he is 81 years old and has written the adjutant general of Iowa asking for authority to organize a graybeard regiment of home guards in case of war with Germany.

There has been a German in the Siam neighborhood denouncing the United States and Mr. Roush asks for a special permission to arrest him. The United States Ambassador says there is a lamp post from which to hang every German in this country who turns traitor.

The letter Mr. Roush sent to the department is as follows:

"I am an old veteran of the war of 1861 and 1865. My five brothers and myself enlisted in the Union army and went through the war and all got back to our homes in rank from captain to private. I am 81 years old. I was crippled and am a pensioner. I am going to ask for a commission as captain of a company of graybeards. I can drill, I can march, I can cook and take care of the wounded and do about anything in the line of service.

"I was a member of Co. F, Twenty-ninth Iowa Vol. Inf. Now sir, if it should happen that we have to fight the Kaiser and I am spared, if you see anything of my little worth to help along, you can depend upon me."—H. H. Roush (In Hopkins Journal).

THE DRIEST WINTER

THIS SEASON BREAKS 60-YEAR RECORD IN NORTHWEST.

TEMPERATURE, NORMAL

Three Features Were Wide Range of Temperature, Dryness and Sunshine.

December, January and February this winter have been the driest winter months in this part of the country for more than sixty years, wit ha total precipiiation of only .88 of inch. The basis of this statement is furnished by the weather record kept at Oregon, Mo., which dates back to, 1855, and for the twenty-five years the records have been kept at Maryville.

Much more sunshine has prevailed than in any winter since the establishment of the weather bureau here.

As regards temperature, this winter has been almost normal. The temperature was below zero several days and was up to 60 degrees an equal number of days. The extremes for the winter have been in the month just ending.

For the month of February, the three most remarkable features were its wide range in temperature, dryness and large amount of sunshine. The fore part of the month was much colder, the coldest day of the month and also the winter being on February 2, when the mercury fell to 21 degrees below zero. The warmest day of the month was on February 22, when it rose to 66 degrees.

The precipitation consisted of traces of snow or rain and amounted to .1 of an inch. The lowest ever recorded by Weather Observer Brink was in February 1910 when the precipitation amounted to only .07 of an inch. The normal precipitation for February for the past twenty five years is 1.23 inch and the greatest was in 1911 when there was 4.22 inches. There was one inch of snow during the past month. The least snowfall recorded for February was in 1911 when no snow fell. The greatest snowfall for February was in 1912 when 30 inches fell.

The mean maximum temperature for the month was 32.5 and the mean minimum temperature was 6.3. The mean temperature was 17.4. For the twenty-five years, the normal mean temperature is 23 degrees for February, which shows the past month was a little colder than normal.

BIGGEST GAME OF YEAR

Benton High School Comes Tomorrow Night For A Clash With The M. H. S.

The biggest basketball game of the year will be staged on the Normal court tomorrow night when the Maryville High School five clashes with the quintet from Benton High of St. Joseph.

Bentonites, as well as Maryville fans regard this game as the most important on the schedule. A special train will be run from St. Joseph bearing between one hundred and two hundred rooters. The train will arrive probably about seven o'clock and will leave immediately after the game is over.

The Benton team is very strong, one of the best in northwest Missouri. They have not yet lost a game and are looking forward to an all-victorious season. The Maryville team, however, is held in the greatest respect. In the game between the two teams at St. Joseph two weeks ago, Benton won out by only six points. This was the closest score ever made by a team from Maryville High School playing at St. Joseph.

The team is still in poor shape from the effects of their three-day's trip. Condon and Egley have been unable to attend practice this week and Martin and Pickens have not entirely recovered. Groppe, however, is in good shape again, and the others will probably "pull around," by tomorrow night. With the prospects of beating Benton it will be hard to keep any of them out of the game.

The county teachers examination will be held tomorrow and Saturday at the Business College.

A PURITAN STRAIN

DOCTOR CADMAN SAYS IT MADE ALL THE GREAT MEN.

CITES SPECIFIC INSTANCES

Declares That Need of America Today Is Discipline and Urges Military Training For Men.

The marvelous contribution of Puritan life to civilization was most interestingly set forth by Dr. Parkes Cadman in his lecture on the "Puritan," at the Christian church last night.

The crowd attending was larger than that at any of the previous Lyceum numbers.

Doctor Cadman was introduced by the Rev. Gilbert S. Cox, pastor of the First Methodist church, who attended the Boston School of Theology, from which Doctor Cadman was graduated.

Different From Previous Lecture.

Doctor Cadman's lecture was entirely different from the one given by Judge Alden, both as regards the subject matter and the manner of delivery. But is was nevertheless thoroughly enjoyed by the audience. His peculiar faculty of driving home the most serious of truths by the use of witty sayings and apt illustrations was noticeable all through the lecture, and as the people laughed, they were having impressed on their minds some of the great lessons on the seriousness of life and the necessity of having a purpose in living, other than mere enjoyment and the acquisition of money.

Americans Need Discipline.

The noted preacher declared that the discipline of the nation had been broken down in the American home. He said that six million men over the age of 21 were absolutely without discipline, and that he was in favor of establishing a school to bring up parents in order that they in turn could bring up their children.

He then followed the Puritan strain in the nations beginning with the Greeks and coming up to the time of Abraham Lincoln. He showed in each case what we really owed to the Greeks to the Romans, to the early Germans and to the early English. He spoke of our indebtedness to the Greeks for nearly all we know of art, to the Romans for our knowledge of law and jurisprudence, to the Germans for some of our scientific knowledge and to the early English for our knowledge of the drama and of the best in literature.

Urges History Study.

He urged the reading of history to those who would become broadminded and successful in the work of life. "He who would get full measure from life," said Doctor Cadman, "must pass his days and nights in the study of history. He must let the lamp of the past shine on his present and on his future. It isn't a question of reading about Lincoln and Washington or about Lee and Grant. But instead, we must incorporate into our lives the broad principles that their lives represent and become something worth while ourselves.

Doctor Cadman does not believe that force can control. He says that in particular instances this may be shown but in the larger issues, the history of the race has always been a history of righteousness, that in the vaster area God is working out his own schemes. He declared that the men of today who are using the sword with such cold blooded disregard for the rights of others will lose by the sword.

That the Puritan principle has made all of the great men in the world was the point especially emphasized by Doctor Cadman. He took up the lives of Jesus, of Plato, of Aristocles, of the Romans, of Calvin, of Luther, of Daniel Webster, of John Wesley, and of many others and showed how the adherence to the strict morality and to the idea of the seriousness of life was the thing that made these men what they were.

Military training was especially emphasized by Doctor Cadman. He says that it will get the boys away from their homes long enough to make men of them.

2ND FAMILY QUARANTINED

Mrs. Clyde McGinness of Near Elmo Is Suffering From Smallpox—Neff's Getting Better.

Mrs. Clyde McGinness, living two miles east of Elmo, is a victim of smallpox. Her home was quarantined this week by Dr. F. M. Ryan, county physician. A number of persons have been exposed to the disease, but the cases are being watched closely, and the authorities are sure that they will be able to control it.

The members of the Neff family who have been suffering from the disease are rapidly improving. The McGinnesses are the second family in the Elmo neighborhood to be quarantined.

Miller, Skidmore; Lon Hughes, Maryville; Charles Stafford, Pickering; J. V. Pugh, Guilford; Harry Wamsley, Arkoe; E. C. Wolfers, Hopkins.

A meeting of the committee will be held in Maryville soon.

LIKES ARMY LIFE FINE

Francis Keegan A New Recruit Writes That Discipline Is Not As Bad As He Expected.

Francis Keegan of Maryville who left for Jefferson Barracks on February 15 to join the United States army, has written a letter to his mother telling her of his success in passing the examinations at the barracks. He also says that he likes the life just fine, that he gets plenty of good food, plenty of sleep and exercise and that the army discipline is not as bad as some would make it appear.

The Maryville recruiting station had seven applicants to join the army last month. Of this number six were sent and the other one will in all probability go. The recruiting officer says that if war should come, he would need several assistants to handle the work of enlisting the numerous applicants.

U. S. IS SURE OF A GERMAN PLOT

URGED MEXICO AND JAPAN TO JOIN HER

Wilson Representations to Carranza May Lead to Withdrawal of German Minister.

Special to The Democrat-Forum

Washington, Mar. 1.—Complete and elaborate information that Germany endeavored to line up Mexico and Japan as enemies of the United States is in the hands of President Wilson. As a result representations are being made to Carranza which may result in the withdrawal from Mexico of German diplomatic agents and possibly of German minister to Mexico. These representations are shrouded in complete secrecy by the administration but it was admitted Carranza has already been given to understand that plotting against the United States on Mexican soil is a "grossly unfriendly act."

The entire international situation so far as relations between the United States and Germany are concerned is extremely serious today, and the latest manifestations of unfriendliness with complete proof which has been gathered reveals a plot of such wide spread ramification to be almost unbelievable.

Germany's hand is seen in Cuba, Colombia and certain Central and Southern countries.

What action has been taken by Germany in its endeavor to draw Japan from the alliance with the Entente is not known. The state department and administration officials refused point blank to discuss this phase.

Japan Would Spurn Proposition.

That Japan would instantly spurn any proposition looking to a coalition with Germany and Mexico against the United States was stated authoritatively at the Japanese embassy here. Secretary of State Lansing has exonorated the Japanese government from any complication with the German plot.

"We don't believe Japan had any knowledge of this, or that she would consider any proposition made by an enemy" said Secretary Lansing.

U. S. IS SURE OF GERMANY PLOT

ternoon agreed to recommend the immediate adoption of a long resolution calling upon the president to furnish the Senate with an official copy of the Zimmerman letter.

The Senate appropriation committee cut out the four hundred thousand dollar appropriation contained in the sundry civil bill for investigation into the high cost of living.

A vote this afternoon on the Flood Bill, granting the President power to arm American vessels is assured.

Washington, Mar. 1.—The state department officially confirmed the fact that Foreign Minister Zimmerman of the German government on January 19, wrote the German Minister at Mexico City, suggesting an alliance between Mexico, Japan and Germany by which they were to make war on the United States, if this country should not remain neutral.

Such a proposal, as Germany instructed her minister to make to Mexico, borders an an act of war, if, actually, it is not one.

Japan, through Mexican mediation, was to be urged to abandon her allies and join the attack on the United States.

Mexico, for her reward, was to receive general financial support from Germany to reconquer Texas, New Mexico and Arizona—lost provinces—and share in the victorious peace terms Germany contemplated.

Details were left to German Minister von Eckhardt, in Mexico City, who, by instructions signed by German Foreign Minister Zimmerman, at Berlin, January 19, 1917, was directed to propose the alliance with Mexico to Gen-Carranza and suggest that Mexico seek to bring Japan into the plot.

These instructions were transmitted to von Eckhardt through Count von Bernstorff, former German ambassador here, now on his way home to Germany under a safe conduct obtained from his enemies, by the country against which he was plotting war.

Germany pictured to Mexico, by broad intimation, England and the Entente allies defeated, Germany and her allies triumphant and in world domination by the instrument of unrestricted submarine warfare.

This document has been in the hands of the government since President Wilson broke off diplomatic relations with Germany.

The document supplies the missing link to many separate chains of circumstances, which, until now, have seemed to lead to no definite point. It sheds new light upon the frequently reported but definite movements of the Mexican government to couple its situation with the friction between the United States and Japan. It adds another chapter to the celebrated report of Jules Cambon, French ambassador in Berlin before the war, of Germany's world-wide plans for stirring strife on every continent where they might aid her in the struggle for world domination which she dreamed was so close at hand. It adds a climax to the operations of Count von Bernstorff and the German embassy in this country, which have been colored with passport frauds, charges of dynamite plots, and intrigue, the full extent of which never has been published.

Opposition in Congress Disappears.

Washington, Mar. 1.—Administration leaders declared the uncovering of Germany's plot to array Japan and Mexico against the United States would strengthen the president's hand in Congress and that opposition on the Flood armed neutrality bill will appear.

The passage of the emergency revenue bill by the senate will place immediately in the hands of the government approximately five hundred million dollars which is sorely needed in this international crisis. The bill will not go to conference but will be presented at once to the president for his signature and funds will he available with that act.

Well, The Boys Are Here, What Shall We Do With Them?

No need to ask Maryville that question for her reception of the members of the Fourth Regiment band was all that could be desired. The stores decorated "profusely," as they say in the society columns, and an enormous crowd was on hand to meet the boys as the Burlington train rolled into the station.

About 150 automobiles went down to the station. Seven of them Schumachers, W. C. Pearson's, J. H. Sewells's, Dr. Jesse Miller's, Roy Carfman's Will Phares' and T. L. Wilderman's, were used to convey the boys from the station, and they were taken to the hotel Linville and Bainum where they had dinner.

This afternoon's program begins at 4 o'clock when the school children will march. The boys will play the first time then. The evening program is all arranged and prospects for a splendid time gathering were never so bright.

The small admission fee, thirty-five cents will be charged for the evening's entertainment, and never did thirty-five cents promise so much amusement in Maryville. Pictures first—a five reel photoplay, 'Davy Crockett,' worth fifteen cents any day in the week. Then will follow a dollar concert by the boys just home from the border, where they have been practicing ten hours a week for the last seven months on brand new instruments. Then speeches that can't be valued in money unless you know the speakers, W. A. Blagg, T. A. Cummins and the Rev. S. A. Coile. And after the speeches more pictures. You will get more than full value for every penny expended, and the money goes to the boys. The dance at the Elks Club will end the festivities.

The program to be given by the Fourth Regiment band follows:

March—"Pilot".....G. D. Sherman
Overture—"William Tell".....Rossini
One-Step—"Hello Hawaii, How Are You".....Swartz
Waltz—"Blue Danube".....Strauss
Clarinet Solo—"How Can I Leave Thee".....Reinhold Ritter
Grand Selection—"Songs of Scotland".....J. B. Lampe

Home's The Best Place After All, Says Bandmaster Maulding

Bandmaster T. B. Maulding of the Fourth Regiment band is proud of the record made by his boys on the border. He says that the band had the reputation throughout all the camps of being the best among those of the National Guard.

"Soon after we arrived," said Bandmaster Maulding today, "The band was recruited to its full strength—twenty-eight members—and the daily rehearsals soon brought the playing of the boys up to a degree of excellence that would have been difficult of attainment ordinarily. We practiced every day except Saturdays and Sundays, and took part in the regimental work besides. Then we gave a concert every evening, and played at any of the social functions given by the officers.

"The experience was not always pleasant but was nevertheless valuable. I do not believe that there is a man returning to Maryville today who does not think more of his home and who has not a different outlook on life. The months of discipline have made the boys appreciate work and realize the value of work, well and properly done.

"I did not like the South or the southern people. Their ways were strange, and I couldn't get used to them. Otherwise, I didn't mind the life down there,—but no matter how comfortably one is fixed away in another town, home is the best place, after all."

HOPKINS WAR VETERAN.

H. H. Roush, 81 Years Old, Makes Formal Request for Service and Permission to Make Arrests.

H. H. Roush, of the Siam neighborhood, has his fighting clothes on, even if he is 81 years old and has written the adjutant general of Iowa asking for authority to organize a graybeard regiment of home guards in case of war with Germany.

There has been a German in the Siam neighborhood denouncing the United States and Mr. Roush asks for a special permission to arrest him. The United States Ambassador says there is a lamp post from which to hang every German in this country who turns traitor.

The letter Mr. Roush sent to the department is as follows:

"I am an old veteran of the war of 1861 and 1865. My five brothers and myself enlisted in the Union army and went through the war and all got back to our homes in rank from captain to private. I am 81 years old. I was crippled and am a pensioner. I am going to ask for a commission as captain of a company of graybeards. I can drill, I can march, I can cook and take care of the wounded and do about anything in the line of service.

"I was a member of Co. F, Twenty-ninth Iowa Vol. Inf. Now sir, if it should happen that we have to fight the Kaiser and I am spared, if you see anything of my little worth to help along, you can depend upon me."—H. H. Roush (In Hopkins Journal).

THE DRIEST WINTER

THIS SEASON BREAKS 60-YEAR RECORD IN NORTHWEST.

TEMPERATURE, NORMAL

Three Features Were Wide Range of Temperature, Dryness and Sunshine.

December, January and February this winter have been the driest winter months in this part of the country for more than sixty years, wit ha total precipiation of only .88 of inch. The basis of this statement is furnished by the weather record kept at Oregon, Mo., which dates back to 1855, and for the twenty-five years the records have been kept at Maryville.

Much more sunshine has prevailed than in any winter since the establishment of the weather bureau here.

As regards temperature, this winter has been almost normal. The temperature was below zero several days and was up to 60 degrees an equal number of days. The extremes for the winter have been in the month just ending.

For the month of February, the three most remarkable features were its wide range in temperature, dryness and large amount of sunshine. The fore part of the month was much colder, the coldest day of the month and also the winter being on February 2, when the mercury fell to 21 degrees below zero. The warmest day of the month was on February 22, when it rose to 66 degrees

The precipitation consisted of traces of snow or rain and amounted to .1 of an inch. The lowest ever recorded by Weather Observer Brink was in February 1910 when the precipitation amounted to only .07 of an inch. The normal precipitation for February for the past twenty five years is 1.23 inch and the greatest was in 1911 when there was 4.22 inches. There was one inch of snow during the past month. The least snowfall recorded for February was in 1911 when no snow fell. The greatest snowfall for February was in 1912 when 30 inches fell.

The mean maximum temperature for the month was 32.5 and the mean minimum temperature was 6.3. The mean temperature was 17.4. For the twenty-five years, the normal mean temperature is 23 degrees for February, which shows the past month was a little colder than normal.

BIGGEST GAME OF YEAR

Benton High School Comes Tomorrow Night For A Clash With The M. H. S.

The biggest basketball game of the year will be staged on the Normal court tomorrow night when the Maryville High School five clashes with the quintet from Benton High of St. Joseph.

Bentonites, as well as Maryville fans regard this game as the most important on the schedule. A special train will be run from St. Joseph bearing between one hundred and two hundred rooters. The train will arrive probably about seven o'clock and will leave immediately after the game is over.

The Benton team is very strong, one of the best in northwest Missouri. They have not yet lost a game and are looking forward to an all-victorious season. The Maryville team, however, is held in the greatest respect. In the game between the two teams at St. Joseph two weeks ago, Benton won out by only six points. This was the closest score ever made by a team from Maryville High School playing at St. Joseph.

The team is still in poor shape from the effects of their three-day's trip. Condon and Egley have been unable to attend practice this week and Martin and Pickens have not entirely recovered. Groppe, however, is in good shape again, and the others will probably "pull around," by tomorrow night. With the prospects of beating Benton it will be hard to keep any of them out of the game.

The county teachers examination will be held tomorrow and Saturday at the Business College.

A PURITAN STRAIN

DOCTOR CADMAN SAYS IT MADE ALL THE GREAT MEN.

CITES SPECIFIC INSTANCES

Declares That Need of America Today Is Discipline and Urges Military Training For Men.

The marvelous contribution of Puritan life to civilization was most interestingly set forth by Dr. Parkes Cadman in his lecture on the "Puritan," at the Christian church last night.

The crowd attending was larger than that at any of the previous Lyceum numbers.

Doctor Cadman was introduced by the Rev. Gilbert S. Cox, pastor of the First Methodist church, who attended the Boston School of Theology, from which Doctor Cadman was graduated.

Different From Previous Lecture.

Doctor Cadman's lecture was entirely different from the one given by Judge Alden, both as regards the subject matter and the manner of delivery. But is was nevertheless thoroughly enjoyed by the audience. His peculiar faculty of driving home the most serious of truths by the use of witty sayings and apt illustrations was noticeable all through the lecture, and as the people laughed, they were having impressed on their minds some of the great lessons on the seriousness of life and the necessity of having a purpose in living, other than mere enjoyment and the acquisition of money.

Americans Need Discipline.

The noted preacher declared that the discipline of the nation had been broken down in the American home. He said that six million men over the age of 21 were absolutely without discipline, and that he was in favor of establishing a school to bring up parents in order that they in turn could bring up their children.

He then followed the Puritan strain in the nations beginning with the Greeks and coming up to the time of Abraham Lincoln. He showed in each case what we really owed to the Greeks to the Romans, to the early Germans and to the early English. He spoke of our indebtedness to the Greeks for nearly all we know of art, to the Romans for our knowledge of law and Jurisprudence, to the Germans for some of our scientific knowledge and to the early English for our knowledge of the drama and of the best in literature.

Urges History Study.

He urged the reading of history to those who would become broadminded and successful in the work of life. "He who would get full measure from life," said Doctor Cadman, "must pass his days and nights in the study of history. He must let the lamp of the past shine on his present and on his future. It isn't a question of reading about Lincoln and Washington or about Lee and Grant. But instead, we must incorporate into our lives the broad principles that their lives represent and become something worth while ourselves.

Doctor Cadman does not believe that force can control. He says that in particular instances this may be shown but in the larger issues, the history of the race has always been a history of righteousness, that in the vaster area God is working out his own schemes. He declared that the men of today who are using the sword with such cold blooded disregard for the rights of others will lose by the sword.

That the Puritan principle has made all of the great men in the world was the point especially emphasized by Doctor Cadman. He took up the lives of Jesus, of Plato, of Aristocles, of the Romans, of Calvin, of Luther, of Daniel Webster, of John Wesley, and of many others and showed how the adherence to the strict morality and to the idea of the seriousness of life was the thing that made these men what they were.

Military training was especially emphasized by Doctor Cadman. He says that it will get the boys away from their homes long enough to make men of them.

LIKES ARMY LIFE FINE

Francis Keegan A New Recruit Writes That Discipline Is Not As Bad As He Expected.

Francis Keegan of Maryville who left for Jefferson Barracks on February 15 to join the United States army, has written a letter to his mother telling her of his success in passing the examinations at the barracks. He also says that he likes the life just fine, that he gets plenty of good food, plenty of sleep and exercise and that the army discipline is not as bad as some would make it appear.

The Maryville recruiting station had seven applicants to join the army last month. Of this number six were sent and the other one will in all probability go. The recruiting officer says that if war should come, he would need several assistants to handle the work of enlisting the numerous applicants.

U. S. IS SURE OF A GERMAN PLOT

HAS COMPLETE INFORMATION OF PLANS TO FIGHT US.

URGED MEXICO AND JAPAN TO JOIN HER

Wilson Representations to Carranza May Lead to Withdrawal of German Minister.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Washington, Mar. 1.—Complete and elaborate information that Germany endeavored to line up Mexico and Japan as enemies of the United States is in the hands of President Wilson. As a result representations are being made to Carranza which may result in the withdrawal from Mexico of German diplomatic agents and possibly of German minister to Mexico. These representations are shrouded in complete secrecy by the administration but it was admitted Carranza has already been given to understand that plotting against the United States on Mexican soil is a "grossly unfriendly act."

The entire international situation so far as relations between the United States and Germany are concerned is extremely serious today, and the latest manifestations of unfriendliness with complete proof which has been gathered reveals a plot of such wide spread ramification to be almost unbelievable.

Germany's hand is seen in Cuba, Colombia and certain Central and Southern countries.

What action has been taken by Germany in its endeavor to draw Japan from the alliance with the Entente is not known. The state department and administration officials refused point blank to discuss this phase.

Japan Would Spurn Proposition.

That Japan would instantly spurn any proposition looking to a coalition with Germany and Mexico against the United States was stated authoritatively at the Japanese embassy here. Secretary of State Lansing has exonorated the Japanese government from any complication with the German plot.

"We don't believe Japan had any knowledge of this, or that she would consider any proposition made by an enemy" said Secretary Lansing.

U. S. IS SURE OF GERMANY PLOT

ternoon agreed to recommend the immediate adoption of a long resolution calling upon the president to furnish the Senate with an official copy of the Zimmerman letter.

The Senate appropriation committee cut out the four hundred thousand dollar appropriation contained in the sundry civil bill for investigation into the high cost of living.

A vote this afternoon on the Flood Bill, granting the President power to arm American vessels is assured.

Washington, Mar. 1.—The state department officially confirmed the fact that Foreign Minister Zimmerman of the German government on January 19, wrote the German Minister at Mexico City, suggesting an alliance between Mexico, Japan and Germany by which they were to make war on the United States, if this country should not remain neutral.

Such a proposal, as Germany instructed her minister to make to Mexico, borders an an act of war, if, actually, it is not one.

Japan, through Mexican mediation, was to be urged to abandon her allies and join the attack on the United States.

Mexico, for her reward, was to receive general financial support from Germany to reconquer Texas, New Mexico and Arizona—lost provinces—and share in the victorious peace terms Germany contemplated.

Details were left to German Minister von Eckhardt, in Mexico City, who, by instructions signed by German Foreign Minister Zimmerman, at Berlin, January 19, 1917, was directed to propose the alliance with Mexico to Gen-Carranza and suggest that Mexico seek to bring Japan into the plot.

These instructions were transmitted to von Eckhardt through Count von Bernstorff, former German ambassador here, now on his way home to Germany under a safe conduct obtained from his enemies, by the country against which he was plotting war.

Germany pictured to Mexico, by broad intimation, England and the Entente allies defeated, Germany and her allies triumphant and in world domination by the instrument of unrestricted submarine warfare.

This document has been in the hands of the government since President Wilson broke off diplomatic relations with Germany.

The document supplies the missing link to many separate chains of circumstances, which, until now, have seemed to lead to no definite point. It sheds new light upon the frequently reported but definite movements of the Mexican government to couple its situation with the friction between the United States and Japan. It adds another chapter to the celebrated report of Jules Cambon, French ambassador in Berlin before the war, of Germany's world-wide plans for stirring strife on every continent where they might aid her in the struggle for world domination which she dreamed was so close at hand. It adds a climax to the operations of Count von Bernstorff and the German embassy in this country, which have been colored with passport frauds, charges of dynamite plots, and intrigue, the full extent of which never has been published.

Opposition in Congress Disappears.

Washington, Mar. 1.—Administration leaders declared the uncovering of Germany's plot to array Japan and Mexico against the United States would strengthen the president's hand in Congress and that opposition on the Flood armed neutrality bill will appear.

The passage of the emergency revenue bill by the senate will place immediately in the hands of the government approximately five hundred million dollars which is sorely needed in this international crisis. The bill will not go to conference but will be presented at once to the president for his signature and funds will be available with that act.
